

January 2016

Dear customer,

With this email we want to inform you about our transit times to China.

During the period from 01/12/2015 to 08/01/2016 average delivery times have been measured.

Below you can find the average transit times in calendar days by Office of Exchange:

We will keep informing you on our current transit times, but should you have any extra question, please feel free to contact our team.
